BLANKET PURCHASE AGREEMENT (BPA) FEDERAL SUPPLY SCHEDULE (FSS)

In the spirit of the Federal Acquisition Streamlining Act (FASA), the US IMMIGRATION CUSTOMS ENFORCEMENT (ICE) AGENCY and Thomas Computer Solutions, LLC, dba TCS Translations enter into a cooperative agreement to further reduce the administrative costs of acquiring commercial items from the General Services Administration (GSA) FSS Contract(s) GS-10F-0114N.

FSS contract BPAs eliminate contracting and open market costs such as: the search for sources; the development of technical documents and solicitations; and the evaluation of bids and offers. Contractor Team Arrangements are permitted with FSS in accordance with Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Subpart 9.6.

This BPA will further decrease costs, reduce paperwork and save time by eliminating the need for repetitive, individual purchases from the Schedule contract. The end result is to create a purchasing mechanism for the Government that works better and costs less.

The report shall state the current status of all security clearances packages, dates these packages were submitted to the ICE COTR, dates security clearance notifications were received from ICE, how many are cleared, and how many are pending clearance. The date the report is due will be established by the COTR. The Contractor's Security Officer shall make every effort to avoid incurring unnecessary costs by the Government for BIs by prescreening all applicants to ensure that all personnel furnished are reliable and of reputable background.

and sound character. The following types of previous conduct, as discussed on the personnel security questionnaires, in a personal interview with the prospective contract employee, or disclosed as part of the BI, are grounds for mandatory disqualification for employment on an ICE contract:

- Conviction resulting from a felony, regardless of when the conviction occurred.
- Pending indictments or criminal charges. Any arrest or detention for an offense that could result in felony criminal charges.
- Currently serving probation for an offense that resulted from a criminal conviction.
- Current or prior illegal use of drugs: As a result of its law enforcement responsibilities, as well as the sensitive nature of its work, ICE has a compelling obligation to ensure a workplace that is free of illegal drugs. Current ICE Drug use policy states that, "applicants who are found, through investigation or personal admission, to have experimented with or used narcotics or dangerous drugs, except those medically prescribed, will not be considered for employment with ICE. Exceptions to this policy may be made for applicants who admit to experimental use of marijuana. Such applicants may be considered for employment if there is no evidence of regular, confirmed usage and the BI is otherwise favorable. Experimental use or use of any narcotic, dangerous drug or marijuana, except medically prescribed, after employment with ICE is cause for removal.
- Intentional false statement, deception, or fraud in appointment (e.g. altering, the condition of discharge on military discharge documents, altering college transcripts, falsely completing the appropriate security questionnaire (SF86) or other official documents used in the selection process. Conflicting statements of drug use within the appropriate security questionnaire (SF86) and the Drug Use Questionnaire, and/or the BI, will constitute a false statement.
- Default on a guaranteed student loan (without any attempt to repay such loans). Failure to honor any just debt, as may be indicated from the BI, credit check or self-admission, will constitute a default on credit. In these circumstances, the applicant will be required to correct any credit deficiencies prior to further processing of the security paperwork.
- Failure to pay income tax, or other Federal or state financial obligation.
- Failure to pay child support.
- Evidence of behavior that is disloyal to the United States, or reasonable doubt of loyalty to the United States.
- Dual citizenship (depending on the country and reasons for acquiring and maintaining it).
- For positions requiring access to sensitive information; has not resided in the United States for at least 3 out of the last 5 years.
- Failure to register for the Selective Service (males born after December 31, 1959).
- It is possible that issues concerning the hiring or retention of a contractor may be raised that are not addressed in these guidelines.

ICE may inquire into and examine a contract employee applicant's performance experience, conduct, character, judgment, stability, discretion, integrity, responsibility, and candor in determining his/her trustworthiness for contract employment with ICE. In making this determination, ICE may investigate and consider any matter that would reasonably subject the prospective contract employee to coercion; but no inference concerning susceptibility to coercion may be raised solely on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, or sexual orientation. Conduct or behavior becomes germane to the adjudication of a BI when it offers the potential for undue influence, coercion, of exploitation that may cause the individual to act in a manner inconsistent with the mission of ICE.

In the event ICE or the Contractor has reasonable cause to believe that a prospective contract employee falls under any of the disqualification factors listed above, the prospective contract employee must be removed from consideration for performance under the contract. If a contract employee's BI results in a determination of unsuitability or is otherwise deemed unfavorable, the contract employee must be removed from further consideration for performance under the ICE contract. ICE reserves the right to refuse and/or terminate the service and access of any contract employee who is or may be judged a security risk. The COTR will inform the Contractor of the non-suitability of any translator. It is understood that a determination by ICE that a person is not suitable to perform work under this contract is not a denial, suspension, or revocation of a previously granted security clearance and is neither intended as nor shall be interpreted as a direction or recommendation to the contractor regarding the suitability of an individual for other employment outside the scope of any ICE contract.

Discretionary Factors - All available, reliable information about the person, past and present, favorable and unfavorable, will be considered in reaching a determination regarding whether to hire a contract employee. In evaluating the relevance of a person's conduct, the following factors may be considered:

- Nature, extent, and seriousness of the conduct.
- The circumstances surrounding the conduct, to include knowledgeable participation.
- The frequency and prevalence of the conduct.
- The individual's age and maturity at the time of the conduct.
- The voluntariness of participation.
- The motivation of the conduct.
- The potential for pressure, coercion, or duress.
- The likelihood of continuation or recurrence.

Note: To avoid a conflict of interest, it is critical that the contractor does not provide translation services to both ICE and the individual who is the subject of the case for which ICE pursued the translation. (e.g. If the contractor provides a translation to ICE for a case involving individual X, the contractor cannot provide the same services to individual X.)
