Detainee Services Standards

ACCESS TO LEGAL MATERIALS

Policy: Facilities holding ICE detainees shall permit detainees access to a law library, and provide legal materials, facilities, equipment and document copying privileges, and the opportunity to prepare legal documents.

Components	Υ	N	NA	Remarks
The facility provides a designated law library for detainee use.	\boxtimes
The law library contains all materials listed in the "Access to Legal Materials" Standard, Attachment A. The listing of materials is posted in the law library.	×
The library contains a sufficient number of chairs, is well lit and is reasonably isolated from noisy areas.	\boxtimes
The law library is adequately equipped with typewriter, computers or both and has sufficient supplies for daily use by the detainees.				Memphis S.O. provided Lexus Nexus and computer.
In addition to the physical law library, ICE detainees have access to the Lexus Nexus electronic law library.	\boxtimes
Where provided, the Lexus Nexus library is updated and is current.	\boxtimes
Outside persons and organizations are permitted to submit published legal material for inclusion in the legal library. Outside published material is forwarded and reviewed by the ICE prior to inclusion.			×	No request.
There is a designated ICE or facility employee who inspects, updates, and maintain/replace legal material and equipment on a routine basis.	×
Detainees are offered a minimum 5 hours per week in the law library. Detainees are not required to forego recreation time in lieu of library usage. Detainees facing a court deadline are given priority use of the law library.	×
Detainees may request material not currently in the law library. Each request is reviewed and where appropriate an acquisition request is initiate and timely pursued. Request for copies of court decisions are accommodated within 3 – 5 business days.	$\boxtimes_{}$
The facility permits detainees to assist other detainees, voluntarily and free of charge, in researching and preparing legal documents, consistent with security.	×
Staff ensures that illiterate or non-English-speaking detainees without legal representation receive more than access to English-language law books after indicating their need for help.	×
Detainees may retain a reasonable amount of personal legal material in the general population and in the special management unit. Stored legal materials are accessible within 24 hours of a written request.
Detainees housed in Administrative Segregation and Disciplinary Segregation units have the same law library access as the general population, barring security concerns. Detainees denied access to legal materials are documented and reviewed routinely for lifting of sanctions.
All denials of access to the law library fully documented.
Facility staff informs ICE Management when a detainee or group of detainees is denied access to the law library or law materials.	×

ACCESS TO LEGAL MATERIALS
Policy: Facilities holding ICE detainees shall permit detainees access to a law library, and provide legal materials, facilities, equipment and document copying privileges, and the opportunity to prepare legal documents.

ADMISSION AND RELEASE

Policy: All detainees will be admitted and released in a manner that ensures their health, safety, and welfare. The admissions procedure will, among other things include: medical screening; a file-based assessment and classification process; a body search; and a search of personal belongings, which will be inventoried, documented, and safeguarded as necessary.

Components	Υ	N	NA	Remarks
In processing includes an orientation of the facility. The orientation includes; Unacceptable activities and behavior, and corresponding sanctions; How to contact ICE; The availability of pro bono legal services, and how to pursue such services. Schedule of programs, services, daily activities, including visitation, telephone usage, mail service, religious programs, count procedures, access to and use of the law library and the general library; sick-call procedures, etc., and the detainee handbook.
Medical screenings are performed by medical staff or persons who have received specialized training for the purpose of conducting an initial health screening.	×
Each new arrival is classified according to criminal history and threat levels. Criminal history is provided for each detainee by the ICE field office.	×
All new arrivals are searched in accordance with the "Detainee Search" standard. An officer of the same sex as the detainee conducts the search and the search is conducted in an area that affords as much privacy as possible.	\boxtimes
Detainees are stripped searched only when cause has been established and not as routine policy. Non-criminal detainees are not strip-searched but are patted down unless reasonable suspicion is established.	×			·
The "Contraband" standard governs all personal property searches. IGSAs/CDFs use or have a similar contraband standard. Staff prepares a complete inventory of each detainee's possessions. The detainee receives a copy.
Staff completes Form I-387 or similar form for CDFs and IGSAs for every lost or missing property claim. Facilities forward all I-387 claims to ICE.
Detainees are issued appropriate and sufficient clothing and bedding for the climatic conditions.	\boxtimes
The facility provides and replenishes personal hygiene items as needed. Gender-specific items are available. ICE Detainees are not charged for these items.	×
All releases are properly coordinated with ICE using a Form I-203.	Ø
Staff completes paperwork/forms for release as required.
☐ Acceptable ☐ Deficient ☐ At-Risk ☐ Repeat Finding

Remarks: (Record significant facts, observations, other sources used, etc.)

CLASSIFICATION SYSTEM

Policy: All facilities will develop and implement a system according to which ICE detainees are classified. The classification system will ensure that each detainee is placed in the appropriate category, physically separated from detainees in other categories

from detainees in other categories	,	r
Components	Y	N	NA	Remarks
The facility has a system for classifying detainees. In CDFs and IGSAs, an Objective Classification System or similar is used.	\boxtimes
The facility classification system includes: Classifying detainees upon arrival. Separating individuals who cannot be classified upon arrival from the general population. The first-line supervisor or designated classification specialist reviewing every classification decision.	⊠
The intake/processing officer reviews work-folders, A-files, etc., to identify and classify each new arrival.	Ø
Staff use only information that is factual, and reliable to determine classification assignments. Opinions and unsubstantiated/ unconfirmed reports may be filed but are not used to score detainees classifications.	\boxtimes
Housing assignments are based on classification- level.	\boxtimes
A detainee's classification-level does not affect his/her recreation opportunities. Detainees recreate with persons of similar classification designations.	\boxtimes
Detainee work assignments are based upon classification designations.	\boxtimes
The classification process includes reassessment/reclassification. At IGSA's, detainees may request reassessment 60 days after arrival.	×
Procedures exist for a detainee to appeal their classification assignment. Only a designated supervisor or classification specialist has the authority to reduce a classification-level on appeal.	× ·
Classification appeals are resolved within five business days and detainees are notified of the outcome within 10 business days.
Classification designations may be appealed to a higher authority such as the Warden or equivalent.	×
The Detainee Handbook or equivalent for IGSAs explains the classification levels, with the conditions and restrictions applicable to each.	×

CORRESPONDENCE AND OTHER MAIL

Policy: All facilities will ensure that detainees send and receive correspondence in a timely manner, subject to initiations required for the safety, security, and orderly operation of the facility. Other mail will be permitted, subject to the same limitations. Each facility will widely distribute its guidelines concerning correspondence and other mail

Components	Yes	No	NA	Remarks
The rules for correspondence and other mail are posted in each housing or common area or provided to each detainee via a detainee handbook.	\boxtimes
The facility provides key information in languages other than English; In the language(s) spoken by significant numbers of detainees. List any exceptions.	\boxtimes
Incoming mail distributed to detainees within 24 hours or 1 business day after it is received and inspected.	\boxtimes
Outgoing mail is delivered to the postal service within one business day of its entering the internal mail system (excluding weekends and holidays).
Staff do not open and inspect incoming general correspondence and other mail (including packages and publications) without the detainee present unless documented and authorized in writing by the Warden or equivalent for prevailing security reasons.		\boxtimes
Staff does not read incoming general correspondence without the Warden's prior written approval.
Staff does not inspect incoming special Correspondence for physical contraband or to verify the "special" status of enclosures without the detainee present.	\boxtimes
Staff are prohibited from reading or copying incoming special correspondence.	\boxtimes
Staff are only authorized to inspect outgoing correspondence or other mail without the detainee present when there is reason to believe the item might present a threat to the facility's secure or orderly operation, endanger the recipient or the public, or might facilitate criminal activity.	×
Correspondence to a politician or to the media is processed as special correspondence and is not read or copied.	×
The official authorizing the rejection of incoming mail sends written notice to the sender and the addressee.	\boxtimes
The official authorizing censorship or rejection of outgoing mail provides the detainee with signed written notice.
Staff maintains a written record of every item removed from detainee mail.	\boxtimes
The Warden or equivalent monitors staff handling of discovered contraband and its disposition. Records are accurate and up to date.				·
The procedure for safeguarding cash removed from a detainee protects the detainee from loss of funds and theft. The amount of cash credited to detainee accounts is accurate. Discrepancies are documented and investigated. Standard procedure includes issuing a receipt to the detainee.	\boxtimes			,

CORRESPONDENCE AND OTHER MAIL
Policy: All facilities will ensure that detainees send and receive correspondence in a timely manner, subject to limitations required for the safety, security, and orderly operation of the facility. Other mail will be permitted, subject to the same limitations. Each facility will widely distribute its guidelines concerning correspondence and other mail.
Original identity documents (e.g., passports, birth certificates) are immediately removed and forwarded to ICE staff for placement in A-files.	×
Staff provides the detainee a copy of his/her identity document(s) upon request.	\boxtimes
Staff disposes of prohibited items found in detainee mail in accordance with the "Control and Disposition of Contraband" Standard or the similar prevailing policy in IGSAs.	×
Every Indigent detainee has the opportunity to mail, at government expense: Reasonable correspondence about a legal matter: Three one ounce letters per week: Packages deemed necessary by ICE.
The facility has a system for detainees to purchase stamps and for mailing all special correspondence and a minimum of 5 pieces of general correspondence per week.	\boxtimes
The facility provides writing paper, envelopes, and pencils at no cost to ICE detainees.	\boxtimes

GROUP LEGAL RIGHTS PRESENTATIONS

Policy: Facilities housing ICE detainees shall permit authorized persons to make presentations to groups of detainees for the purpose of informing them of U.S. immigration law and procedures, consistent with the security and orderly operation of each facility. ICE encourages such presentations, which instruct detainees about the immigration system and their rights and options within it.

☑ Check here if No Group Presentations were conducted within the past 12 months. Mark Standard as Acceptable overall and continue on with next portion of worksheet.

The Field Office is responsive to requests by attorneys and accredited representatives for group presentations. Upon receipt of concurrence by the Field Office Director, the facility or authorized ICE Field Office ensures proper notification to attorneys or accredited representatives in a timely manner. The facility follows policy and procedure when rejecting or requesting modifications to objectionable material provided or presented by the attorney or accredited representative. Posters announcing presentations appear in common areas at least 48 hours in advance and sign-up sheets are available and accessible. Documentation is submitted and maintained when any detainee is denied permission to attend a presentation and the reason(s) for the denial. When the number of detainees allowed to attend a presentation is limited, the facility allows a sufficient number of presentations so that all detainees signed up may attend. Detainees in segregation, unable to attend for security reasons may request separate sessions with presenters. Such requests are documented. Interpreters are admitted when necessary to assist attorneys and other legal representatives. Presenters are afforded a minimum of one hour to make the presentation and to conduct a question-and-answer session. Staff permits presenters to distribute ICE-approved materials. The facility permits presenters to meet with small groups of detainees to discuss their cases after the group presentation. ICE or authorized detention staff are present but do not monitor conversations with legal providers. GROUP LEGAL RIGHTS PRESENTATIONS Policy: Facilities housing ICE detainees shall permit authorized persons to make presentations to groups of detainees for the purpose of informing them of U.S. immigration law and procedures, consistent with the security and orderly operation of each facility. ICE encourages such presentations, which instruct detainees about the immigration system and their rights and options within it. Check here if No Group Presentations were conducted within the past 12 months. Mark Standard as Acceptable overall and continue on with next portion of worksheet. Components Remarks NA A copy of the Group Legal Rights Presentation policy, including attachments, is available to detainees upon request Deficient At-Risk Repeat Finding

DETAINEE GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

Policy: Every facility will develop and implement standard operating procedures (SOPs) for addressing detainee grievances in timely fashion. Each step in the process will occur within the prescribed time frame. Among other things, a grievance will be processed, investigated, and decided (subject to appeal) in accordance with the SOPs; a grievance committee will convene as provided in the SOPs. Standard procedure will include providing the detainee with a written response to any formal grievance, which will include the basis for the decision. The facility will also establish standard procedures for handling emergency grievances. All grievances will receive supervisory review. Reprisal against the filer of a grievance will not be tolerated.

Components	Υ	N	NA	Remarks
Written procedures provide for the informal resolution of oral grievances (Not mandatory). If yes, the detainee has up to five days within which to make his/her concern known to a member of the staff.
Detainees have access to the grievance committee (or equivalent in IGSA), using formal procedures. Detainees may seek help from other detainees or facility staff when preparing a grievance. Illiterate, disabled, or non-English-speaking detainees receive special assistance when necessary.	×
Every member of the staff knows how to identify emergency grievances, including the procedures for expediting them.	\boxtimes
There are documented or substantiated cases of staff harassing, disciplining, penalizing, or otherwise retaliating against a detainee who lodges a complaint. • If yes, explain.
Procedures include maintaining a Detainee Grievance Log. If not, an alternative acceptable record keeping system is maintained. "Nuisance complains" are identified in the records. For quality control purposes, staff documents nuisance complaints received but not filed.	×
Staff is required to forward any grievance that includes officer misconduct to a higher official or, in a CDF/IGSA facility, to ICE.	×

NON-MEDICAL EMERGENCY ESCORTED TRIPS
Policy: The Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) may provide detainees with staff-escorted trips into the community for the purpose of visiting critically ill members of the detainee's immediate family, or for attending funerals.
☐ Standard NA: Check this box if all ICE Non-Medical Emergency Escorted Trips are handled only by the ICE Field Office or Sub-Office in control of the detainee case.
Components	Yes	No	NA	Remarks
The Field Office Director considers and approves, on a case-by-case basis, trips to immediate family member's: • Funeral • Deathbed			×
The facility recognizes mother, father, brother, sister, spouse, child, stepparent, and foster parent as "immediate family".
The IGSA facility notifies ICE of all detainee requests for non-medical escorts.	\boxtimes
The detainee's Deportation Officer reviews the file before forwarding a detainee's request, with recommendation, to the approving official. Each recommendation addresses the individual's suitability for travel, e.g., the kind of supervision required.
Each escort includes at least two officers.	\boxtimes
Escorting officers report unexpected situations to the originating facility as a matter of procedure and the ranking supervisor on duty has the authority to issue instructions for completion of the trip.	\boxtimes
Escorting officers have the discretion to; Increase or decrease minimum restraints in accordance with written procedures and classification level of the detainee.	×
Escort officers do not accept gifts/gratuities from a detainee, detainee's relative or friend for any reason.	×
Escort officers ensure that detainees: Conduct themselves in a manner that does not bring discredit to the ICE. Do not violate federal, state, or local laws. Do not purchase, possess, use, consume, or administer narcotics, other drugs, or intoxicants. Make no unauthorized phone calls. Know they are subject to search, urinalysis, breathalyzer, or comparable test upon return.
Standard procedure requires the immediate return to the facility of any detainee who violates trip rules.	Ø

SUICIDE PREVENTION AND INTERVENTION

Policy: All detention staff working with ICE detainees will be trained to recognize suicide-risk indicators. Staff will handle potentially suicidal individuals with sensitivity, supervision, and referrals. A clinically suicidal detainee will receive preventive supervision and treatment.

Components	Υ	N	NA	Remarks
Every new staff member receives suicide-prevention training. Suicide-prevention training occurs during the employee orientation program.	×
Training prepares staff to: Recognize potentially suicidal behavior; Refer potentially suicidal detainees, following facility procedures; Understand and apply suicide-prevention techniques.	×
A health-care provider or specially trained officer screens all detainees for suicide potential as part of the admission process. Screening does not occur later than one working day after the detainee's arrival.
Written procedures cover when and how to refer at-risk detainees to medical staff and procedures are followed.	\boxtimes
The facility has a designated isolation room for evaluation and treatment.	\boxtimes
The designated isolation room does not contain any structures or smaller items that could be used in a suicide attempt.	×
Medical staff has approved the room for this purpose.
Staff observes and documents the status of a suicide- watch detainee at least once every 15 minutes.

to detainee death and related notifications.
Components	Υ	N	NA	Remarks
Detainees, who are chronically or terminally ill, are transferred to an appropriate offsite medical facility.
The facility or appropriate ICE office promptly notifies the next of kin of the detainee's: medical condition. The detainee's location. The limitations placed on visiting.
There are guidelines addressing State Advanced Directive Form for Implementing Living Wills and Advanced Directives. • The guidelines include instructions for detainees who wish to have a living will other than the generic form the DIHS provides or who wish to appoint another to make advance decisions for him or her.
The guidelines provide the detainee the opportunity to have a private attorney prepare the documents.
There is a policy addressing "Do Not Resuscitate Orders"
Detainees with a "Do Not Resuscitate" order in the medical record receive maximal therapeutic efforts short of resuscitation?
The facility notifies the DIHS Medical Director and Headquarters' Legal Counsel of the name and basic circumstances of any detainee with a "Do Not Resuscitate" order in the medical record. In the case of IGSAs, this notification is made through the local ICE representative.
The facility has written procedures to address the issues of organ donation by detainees.
The facility has written procedures to notify ICE officials, deceased family members and consulates, when a detainee dies while in Service.
The facility has a policy and procedure to address the death of a detainee while in transport.
At all ICE locations the detainee's remains disposed of in accordance with the provisions detailed in this standard.
In the event that neither family nor consulate claims the remains, the Field Office schedules an indigent's burial, consistent with local procedures. • If the detainee's is a U.S. military veteran is the Department of Veterans Affairs notified.
An original or certified copy of a detainee's death certificate is placed in the subject's a-file.

ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

Policy: Every facility will control flammable, toxic, and caustic materials through a hazardous materials program. The program will include, among other things, the identification and labeling of hazardous materials in accordance with applicable standards (e.g., National Fire Protection Association [NFPA]); identification of incompatible materials, and safe-handling procedures

The facility has a system for storing, issuing, and maintaining inventories of hazardous materials.
Constant inventories are maintained for all flammable, toxic, and caustic substances used/stored in each section of the facility.	\boxtimes
The manufacturer's Material Safety Data Sheet (MSDS) file is up-to-date for every hazardous substance used. The files list all storage areas, and include a plant diagram and legend. The MSDSs and other information in the files are available to personnel managing the facility's safety program.
All personnel using flammable, toxic, and/or caustic substances follow the prescribed procedures. They: • Wear personal protective • Equipment. • Report hazards and spills to the • designated official.
The MSDSs are readily accessible to staff and detainees in the work areas.				,
Hazardous materials are always issued under proper supervision. • quantities are limited. • Staff always supervises detainees using these substances.	\boxtimes
All "flammable" and "combustible" materials (liquid and aerosol) are stored and used according to label recommendations.
Lighting fixtures and electrical equipment are installed in storage rooms and other hazardous areas meet National Electrical Code requirements.	\boxtimes
All toxic and caustic materials stored in their original containers in a secure area.	×
Excess flammables, combustibles, and toxic liquids are disposed of properly and in accordance with MSDSs.	\boxtimes
Staff directly supervises and accounts for products with methyl alcohol. Staff receive a list of products containing diluted methyl alcohol, e.g., shoe dye. All such products clearly labeled as such. "Accountability" includes issuing such products to detainees in the smallest workable quantities.			\boxtimes
Every employee and detainee using flammable, toxic, or caustic materials receives advance training in their use, storage, and disposal.
The facility complies with the most current edition of applicable codes, standards, and regulations of the National Fire Protection Association and the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA).	×

The Administrative Segregation unit provides non-punitive protection from the general population and individuals undergoing disciplinary segregation. • Detainees are placed in the SMU (administrative) in accordance with written criteria.
In exigent circumstances, staff may place a detainee in the SMU (administrative) before a written order has been approved. • A copy of the order given to the detainee within 24 hours.	\boxtimes
The OIC (or equivalent) regularly reviews the status of detainees in administrative detention. • A supervisory officer conducts a review within 72 hours of the detainee's placement in the SMU (administrative).	X
A supervisory officer conducts another review after the detainee has spent seven days in administrative segregation. Every week thereafter for the first month. Every 30 days after the first month. Does each review include an interview with the detainee. Is a written record made of the decision and the justification.
The detainee is given a copy of the decision and justification for each review. The detainee is given an opportunity to appeal the reviewer's decision to someone else in the facility.
The OIC (or equivalent) routinely notifies the Field Office Director (or staff officer in charge of IGSAs) any time a detainee's stay in administrative detention exceeds 30 days. • Upon notification that the detainee's administrative segregation has exceeded 60 days, the FD forwards written notice to HQ Field Operations Branch Chief for DRO.	×
The OIC or equivalent) reviews the case of every detainee who objects to administrative segregation after 30 days in the SMU. • A written record is made of the decision and the justification. • The detainee receives a copy of this record.
The detainee is given the right to appeal to the OIC (or equivalent) the conclusions and recommendations of any review conducted after the detainee has remained in administrative segregation for seven consecutive days.

SPECIAL MANAGEMENT UNIT (SMU) Administrative Segregation

Policy: The Special Management Unit required in every facility isolates certain detainees from the general population. The Special Management Unit will consist of two sections. MEMORANDUM FOR:

John P. Torres

Director

Office Of Detention and Removal

FROM:

(b)(6), (b)(7)c

(b)(6), (b)(7)c

Deportation Officer

Memphis, Tennessee Sub-Office

SUBJECT:

CCA Mason, 2007 Annual Detention Review

The New Orleans Field Office, Office of Detention and Removal conducted a detention review of the Blount County Jail on April 17, 2006. This review was conducted by (b)(6). (b)(7)c and (b)(6). (This facility is used for detainees requiring housing over 72 hours.

Type of Review:

This review is a scheduled Operational Review to determine general compliance with established Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) National Detention Standards. The last review of this facility was in December 2005.

Review Summary:

The facility is accredited by the American Correctional Association. CCA Mason serves the needs of ICE officers for the Memphis, Tennessee Sub-Office. This facility received a good inspection review in 2005.

Review Findings:

The following information summarizes those standards not in compliance. Each standard is identified and a short summary provided regarding standards or procedures not currently in compliance.

Compliant - 37
Deficient - 0
At-Risk - 0
Non-Applicable - 1

Page 2

Standards Summary Findings:

This facility is compliance with all detention standards.

RIC Observations:

Facility Staff: The staff was extremely well versed in policy and procedure at this location. Staff exhibited confidence and courtesy throughout the review. The team commends the efforts and accomplishments of the Facility staff.

Security Staff: The staff exhibited professionalism. The staff was questioned regarding their policy and procedures. The staff's initial orientation and continued training allows them to operate the facility in a calm and orderly fashion. The Security staff was eager to display their abilities and working knowledge of facility operations.

RIC Issues and Concerns

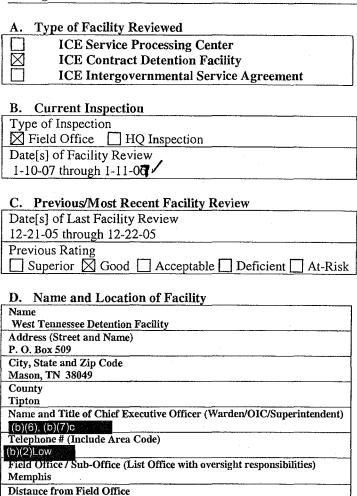

There are no concerns with this facility.

Significant Incident Summary Worksheet

For ICE to complete its review of your facility, the following information must be completed prior to the scheduled review dates. The information on this form should contain data for the past twelve months in the boxes provided. The information on this form is used in conjunction with the ICE Detention Standards in assessing your Detention Operations against the needs of the ICE and its detained population. This form should be filled out by the facility prior to the start of any inspection. Failure to complete this section will result in a delay in processing this report and the possible reduction or removal of ICE' detainees at your facility.
