To the maximum extent permitted by federal law, Defendant voluntarily and expressly waives the right to appeal the conviction and sentence and the right to collaterally attack the conviction and sentence in any post-conviction proceeding, including a § 2255 proceeding, on any ground, except that: (1) Defendant may file a direct appeal of his sentence if it exceeds the statutory maximum; and (2) Defendant may file a direct appeal of his sentence if, by variance or upward departure, the sentence is higher than the advisory sentencing guideline range as found by the sentencing court. Defendant understands that this Plea Agreement does not limit the Government's right to appeal, but if the Government appeals the sentence imposed, Defendant may also file a direct appeal of the sentence.

4. FACTUAL BASIS

Defendant understands that the nature of the charge to which the plea is offered involves proof as to Counts 8, 13, 14, and 15 in the Indictment. Defendant agrees to acknowledge the factual basis for Counts 8, 13, 14, and 15 set forth below during the change-of-plea hearing, and Defendant further understands that his plea of guilty constitutes proof of Counts 8, 13, 14, and 15.

- a. The Defendant agrees that at all times relevant to Counts 8, 13, 14, and 15 of the Indictment, the minors at issue were in the Defendant's care and under his supervision.

5. DEFENDANT'S REPRESENTATIONS TO THE COURT AND FURTHER OBLIGATIONS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT

A. Defendant understands and agrees that nothing in this Plea Agreement shall abrogate the duty and right of the Government to bring all sentencing facts to the attention of the sentencing court, and Defendant further agrees that the Government shall not be bound to make any recommendation under this Plea Agreement if to do so would directly contradict facts relevant to the offense conduct or Defendant's prior conduct or criminal history, which first come to the attention of the Government, or are confirmed as true, only after the signing of this Plea Agreement.

Defendant also understands that the Court is not a party to this Plea Agreement, that the Government can only make recommendations which are not binding on the Court, and that after the entry of Defendant's guilty plea, Defendant has no absolute right to withdraw the plea. Thus, the Court is free to impose any sentence authorized by law – as to Counts 8, 13, and 14, not less than 15 years nor more than 30 years imprisonment, a fine of up to $250,000 (or both), restitution as required by 18 U.S.C. Section 2259, a term of supervised release of five years to life, and a special assessment of $100 per count; and as to Count 15, not less than five nor more than 20 years imprisonment, a fine of up to $250,000 (or both), restitution as required by 18 U.S.C. Section 2259, a term of supervised release of five years to life, and a special assessment of $100.

Defendant further advises the Court that Defendant understands that the United States Probation Office will prepare a presentence investigation report for the Court, and that the United States Probation Office will consider all of Defendant's conduct related to the offense to which he is pleading, which may include conduct related to Counts of the Indictment which were or are to be dismissed or for which Defendant was acquitted, as well as Defendant's criminal history, and that these facts will be considered by the Court in determining Defendant's sentence. Defendant understands that the offense level and criminal history category determined by the United States Probation Office and the Court may differ from that estimated or projected by Defendant's counsel or the United States Attorney. Defendant advises the Court that Defendant understands that if the relevant conduct, guideline sentencing range, or sentence imposed by the Court is more or greater than Defendant expected or, in the case of relevant conduct, is found to be more extensive than Defendant has admitted to, Defendant will still have no absolute right to withdraw the guilty plea.

Defendant also understands that in accordance with United States v. Booker, the Court, while not bound to apply the federal sentencing guidelines, must consult those guidelines and take them into account to formulate a reasonable sentence.

Defendant further understands that by pleading guilty, defendant will be required to register as a sex offender upon his release from prison as a condition of his supervised release pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3583(d). Defendant also understands that independent of supervised release, he will be subject to federal and state sex offender registration requirements, and that those requirements may apply throughout his life.

B. FINES, ASSESSMENTS, AND FORFEITURES

Defendant understands that any assessments imposed pursuant to 18 U.S.C § 3013 by the Court at sentencing must be paid on the date of sentencing.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2259, Defendant agrees to the entry of a Restitution Order for the full amount of the victims' losses. Defendant acknowledges that pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2259(a), the Court is required to order restitution for the full amount of the victims' compensable losses as defined at 18 U.S.C. § 2259(b)(3) and (c) as may be proved by the United States or stipulated to by the parties. Defendant acknowledges that the Court may not decline to award restitution because of the defendant's economic circumstances or the fact that the victims have, or are entitled to, receive compensation for their injuries from the proceeds of insurance or any other source.

Defendant understands that an unanticipated amount of a restitution order will not serve as grounds to withdraw defendant's guilty plea. Defendant further agrees to comply with any restitution order entered into at the time of sentencing. Defendant further agrees that defendant will not seek the discharge of any restitution obligation, in whole or in part, in any present or future bankruptcy proceeding. Defendant agrees to make full restitution for the provable losses caused by defendant's activities. Defendant further agrees to grant the United States a wage assignment, liquidate assets, or complete any other tasks which will result in immediate payment in full, or payment in the shortest time in which full payment can be reasonably made as required under 18 U.S.C. § 3572(d).

Defendant further agrees to make full and accurate disclosure of his financial affairs to the United States. Specifically, Defendant agrees that, before sentencing, Defendant shall provide to the United States, under penalty of perjury, a financial statement which shall identify all assets owned or held directly or indirectly by Defendant. Defendant shall also identify all assets valued at more than $5,000 which have been transferred to third parties since November 15, 2012, including the location of the assets and the identity of the third party or parties.

The parties will jointly recommend that as a condition of probation or supervised release, Defendant will notify the Financial Litigation Unit, United States Attorney's Office, of any interest in property obtained, directly or indirectly, including any interest obtained under any other name, or entity, including a trust, partnership or corporation after the execution of this agreement until the fine or restitution is paid in full. See 18 U.S.C. § 3664(k), (n).

The parties will also jointly recommend that as a condition of probation or supervised release, Defendant will notify the Financial Litigation Unit, United States Attorney's Office, before Defendant transfers any interest in property owned directly or indirectly by Defendant, including any interest held or owned under any other name or entity, including trusts, partnership and/or corporations. See 18 U.S.C. § 3664(k), (n).

The Defendant further agrees that whatever monetary penalties are imposed by the Court will be due immediately and subject to immediate enforcement by the United States as provided for in 18 U.S.C. § 3613. If the Court imposes a schedule of payments, the defendant understands that the schedule of payments is merely a minimum schedule of payments and not the only method, nor a limitation on the methods, available to the United States to enforce the judgment. If the defendant is incarcerated, the defendant agrees to participate in the Bureau of Prisons'

Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, regardless of whether the Court specifically directs participation or imposes a schedule of payments.

Defendant further understands that if a fine or restitution is imposed by the Court at sentencing, or if the United States is pursuing the forfeiture of any property in which Defendant has an interest, whether by administrative, civil, or judicial proceeding, Defendant shall meet with a member of the Financial Litigation Unit of the United States Attorney's Office on the day of sentencing and complete a written personal financial statement setting forth Defendant's assets and liabilities as of the date of the offense. Defendant further understands that by completing the financial statement, Defendant is representing that it is true and accurate to the best of Defendant's information, knowledge, and belief and agrees to make an honest, good faith effort to pay said fine as directed by the financial litigation section of the United States Attorney's Office.

C. FOIA AND PRIVACY ACT WAIVER.

Defendant retains all discovery rights to documents pertaining to the investigation and prosecution of this case as may by law apply to any post-conviction litigation as to which the right to proceed has not otherwise been waived or relinquished by Defendant in this Plea Agreement or otherwise; HOWEVER, notwithstanding any right on the part of Defendant to post-conviction litigation, Defendant, as a part of this Plea Agreement and in consideration of the promises made by the Government hereunder, waives all rights, whether asserted directly or by a representative, to request or receive from any department or agency of the United States any record pertaining to the investigation or prosecution of this case under the authority of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552, or the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552a, and all subsequent amendments thereto.

6. DEFENDANT'S FURTHER REPRESENTATIONS TO THE COURT

A. Defendant represents to the Court that Defendant has had the services of an attorney Defendant believes to be competent; that Defendant has met with said attorney on a sufficient number of occasions and for a sufficient period of time to discuss Defendant's case and receive advice; that Defendant has been truthful with his attorney and related all information of which Defendant is aware pertaining to the case; that Defendant and Defendant's attorney have discussed possible defenses, if any, to the charges in the information, including the existence of any exculpatory or favorable evidence or witnesses, discussed Defendant's right to plead not guilty and compel a public trial by jury or by the Court, the right to the assistance of counsel throughout the proceedings, the right to call witnesses in Defendant's behalf and compel their attendance at trial by subpoena, the right to confront and cross-examine the Government's witnesses, Defendant's right to testify in Defendant's own behalf, or to remain silent and have no adverse inferences drawn from Defendant's silence; and that Defendant, with the advice of counsel, has weighed the relative benefits of a trial by jury or by the Court versus a plea of guilty pursuant to this Agreement, and has entered this Agreement as a matter of Defendant's free and voluntary choice, and not as a result of pressure or intimidation by any person.

B. Defendant further represents to the Court that the plea agreement as set forth herein and the plea to be entered by Defendant is the result of prior discussions between the attorney for the Government and the attorney for Defendant, conducted with Defendant's authorization, knowledge and consent; that this Plea Agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the Government and Defendant; and that Defendant has no other agreements, understandings, or deals with any person other than those set out in this Plea Agreement, that is, Defendant advises the Court that Defendant's entire understanding of this Plea Agreement is completely set forth in writing in this document.

C. Defendant represents to the Court that Defendant has been advised of the nature of the charge to which the plea of guilty is to be offered, of the maximum possible penalty provided by law, as set forth above, and that by entering a plea of guilty Defendant gives up all of the rights set out above, gives up any defenses to the charges, and understands that there will not be a further trial of any kind. Defendant further understands that in entering a plea of guilty, the Court will ask questions about the offense to which the plea is entered. Defendant understands that Defendant will be under oath and on the record in answering those questions, and that Defendant's answers may later be used against Defendant in a criminal prosecution for perjury or false statement if those answers are not truthful.
