Alien's Change of Address Form/
Immigration Court

If you move or change your phone number, the law requires you to file this Change of Address Form with the Immigration Court. You must file this form within five (5) working days of a change in your address or phone number. You will only receive notification as to the time, date, and place of the hearing or other official correspondence at the address which you provide. Changes in address or telephone numbers communicated through any means other than this form, e.g., mailings, motion pictures, correspondence, telephone calls, applications for relief, etc., will not be recognized and the address information and relief will remain unchanged.

Failure to appear at your hearing before an Immigration Judge, when notice of that hearing or other official correspondence was served on you, or sent to the address you provided, may result in one or more of the following actions:

If you are not already detained, you may be taken into custody by the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and held for further action; and your hearing may be held in your absence under Section 240 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), and an order of removal may be entered against you. Furthermore, you may become ineligible for the following forms of relief from removal for a period of 10 years after the date of the entry of the final order:

1. Voluntary Departure as provided for in Section 240B of the INA;
2. Cancellation of Removal as provided for in Section 240A of the INA;
3. Adjustment of Status or Change of Status as provided for in Section(s) 245, 246, or 249 of the INA.

If you are in removal proceedings, your hearing may be held in your absence under Section 240 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), and an order of removal may be entered against you. Furthermore, you may become ineligible for the following forms of relief from deportation for a period of 5 years after the date of the entry of the final order:

1. Voluntary Departure as provided for in Section 242(b) of the INA (1995);
2. Suspension of Deportation or Voluntary Departure as provided for in Section 244 of the INA (1995);
3. Adjustment of Status or Change of Status as provided for in Section(s) 245, 246, or 249 of the INA (1995).

If you are in exclusion proceedings, your application for admission to the United States may be considered withdrawn, and your hearing may be held in your absence and an order of exclusion and deportation entered against you.
