The facility had one allegation of sexual abuse/assault since the previous inspection. The allegation involved detainee-on-detainee assault. The allegation was reported and investigated promptly and appropriately. The allegation was determined to be unsubstantiated.

There were seven detainee hunger strikes since the previous inspection. The review of detainee health records confirmed compliance with facility and medical hunger strike policies. None of the detainees required involuntary evaluation, treatment, or feeding.

There have been no deaths or serious suicide attempts during this inspection period.

The use of Tasers is not permitted. The facility does not use canines. The only chemical agent approved for use is oleoresin capsicum/pepper spray (OC) which is only carried by trained officers working an armed post.

During this inspection period there were nine incidents involving calculated use of force. Two incidents involved detainees who were threatening self-harm and refused orders to stop and exit their cells. One incident involved a detainee who was attempting to damage his cell in SMU and refused orders to stop. One incident involved a detainee who refused to comply with repeated orders to return a disposable razor. Two incidents involved detainees who were spreading feces on the cell windows and exhibiting other bizarre behavior. Both detainees refused orders to exit their cells. Three incidents involved detainees who refused to comply with repeated orders to exit their cells. Two of the three detainees were male and the other was a female. Medical staff were consulted prior to each calculated use of force and were present during the cell extractions. There were eleven incidents involving immediate use of force. Seven incidents involved detainees who refused to comply with orders from officers and became combative. Three incidents involved detainees who were attempting to harm themselves and had to be restrained. All three detainees were placed in the restraint chair. One incident involved a detainee who was threatening the officers and other detainees with a mop handle. The detainee was restrained and removed from the area. No detainees were injured in any of the incidents. One incident resulted in a minor injury to an officer. All reports were reviewed and it was noted that all reports were complete and had been reviewed by the use of force committee and it had been determined that all uses of force were within policy and the standard.
