Facility Snapshot/Description

The Brooks County Detention Center (BCDC) is located in a rural area of Falfurrias, Texas, approximately 120 miles south of San Antonio. The facility is owned and operated by the Geo Group, Inc. (GEO) [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] All detainee services are provided by GEO employees. During this inspection period, low custody male ICE detainees were housed at BCDC from May 2018 until August 2018. Available documentation from this period was inspected by the team.

Brooks County has an Intergovernmental Service Agreement (IGSA) with ICE to house low security male and female detainees. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] ICE detainees were housed in two 48-bed dormitories. [REDACTED] The chief of security confirmed that most detainees are housed for two to three days. The facility does not hold detainees in restrictive housing. A detainee presenting disciplinary issues or medical concerns would be transferred immediately.

The day rooms are equipped with televisions, microwaves, telephones, water fountains, tables and chairs. Radios may be purchased through the commissary. Large outdoor recreation areas are available for soccer, basketball and walking. Sanitation and cleanliness standards were adequate. The majority of the staff members are bilingual. Staff were observed to be professional in appearance and demeanor. All employees interviewed were well-versed in the requirements of the National Detention Standards. Detainees are not charged a copayment for medical care.

Areas of Concern/Significant Observations

There were no areas of concern or significant observations.

Recommended Rating and Justification

The Lead Compliance Inspector recommends that the facility receive a rating of Acceptable. The facility complies with the ICE National Detention Standards (NDS). No (0) standards were found Deficient and three (3) standards were Not Applicable (N/A). All remaining thirty-six (36) standards were found to be in compliance.
