	following items: The Family Residential Centers (FRCs) are not yet fully operational. While the FRCs are being operationalized, Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) modified nine of the Family Residential Standards (FRS) to reflect operational realities. Most modifications are not relevant to the requirements set forth in the Flores Settlement Agreement (FSA). Below are the standards that were modified that do not have FSA related implications: 2.8 Staff Resident Communication This standard was modified to ensure that resident requests are responded to within 24-48 hours rather than three business days as required in the standard. The anticipated length of stay is less than 20 days; therefore, this standard was modified to ensure that residents' requests were responded to quickly. 3.1 Behavior Management This standard was modified to expedite the administrative review of any behavioral issues while in residence. The standard requires and executive review panel and an appeals review board; however, given the length of stay neither will occur within the anticipated timeframe that a family is in residence. The modification streamlines the process to ensure that due process and to resolve issues quickly. 5.1 Correspondence and Other Mail This standard was modified because the anticipated length of stay does not permit the robust system to receive mail and packages. Residents can receive legal and special correspondence mail if requested and approved by the facility and the field office. 5.3 Escorted Trips for Non-Medical Emergencies, 5.4. Marriage Requests, and 5.5. Voluntary Work Program standards were removed from the requirements. None of these standards would exist at the FRC due to the anticipated length of stay. 6.1 Resident Handbook Continued ...
