records on individuals with links to human rights abuses in the former Soviet Union who have been subjects of investigations or enforcement actions by ICE and/or ICE's Homeland Security Investigations (HSI) - including the Human Rights Violators and War Crimes Unit (HRVWCU) within the National Security Investigations Division (NSID). The records you are requesting include arrest reports or other records pertaining to ICE investigations of these individuals. To date I have only found one such record in the public domain, namely a June 7, 2005, report from States News Service about lithuanian national Alfonsas Abeliunas (see enclosed report from LexisNexis).

2) Internal ICE documents or reports - including statistical breakdowns or case summaries - related to ICE enforcement actions or investigations against individuals with links to human rights abuses in the former Soviet Union, including ties to Soviet state security agencies such as the KGB, as well as foreign and military intelligence services.

3) ICE policy or procedural directives related to investigations or enforcement actions against individuals with links to human rights abuses in the former Soviet Union, including ties to Soviet state security agencies such as the KGB, as well as foreign and military intelligence services.

4) The names if individuals who have been subject to ICE investigations or enforcement actions in relation to their links to human rights abuses in the former Soviet Union, including ties to Soviet state security agencies such as the KGB, as well as foreign and military intelligence services
