Daniel A. Bible

Executive Associate Director, Enforcement and Removal Operations

Daniel A. Bible is the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), Enforcement and Removal Operations (ERO) Executive Associate Director. In this role, Mr. Bible leads ERO in its mission to protect the homeland through the arrest and removal of noncitizens who undermine the safety of our communities and the integrity of our immigration laws. Responsible for a budget of approximately $4.7 billion, Mr. Bible directs the operations of more than 7,600 employees assigned to 25 ERO field offices and headquarters, in more than 200 domestic locations and 30 overseas locations.

Mr. Bible brings over two decades of federal law enforcement experience and expertise to this executive leadership role. Mr. Bible began his career as an Immigration Agent with the former U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service in 1998. Throughout his illustrious career, Mr. Bible has time and again proven his outstanding leadership qualities, having held numerous key positions, such as Field Office Director for Houston, San Antonio and Salt Lake City Field Offices, Deputy Field Office Director for the New York Field Office, Unit Chief for the ERO HQ Case Management Unit, Assistant Field Office Director for the Washington Field Office, and Supervisory Detention and Deportation Officer for the San Francisco Field Office. Prior to his current role, Mr. Bible was most recently Deputy Executive Associate Director for ERO.

As a decorated military officer in the U.S. Army Reserve, Mr. Bible served honorably as a Company Commander for the 959th Engineer Company, an Aide-De-Camp for a Brigadier General and a Platoon Leader for the 808th Engineer Company. He was deployed to Southwest Asia for 12 months in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom.

Mr. Bible holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Providence College in Providence, Rhode Island. Mr. Bible has been a member of the Senior Executive Service since 2016.
