INDICTMENT

THE UNITED STATES GRAND JURY CHARGES:

Introduction to all Counts

(1) Section 274A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), as amended by the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, requires employers to hire only United States citizens and aliens who are authorized to work in the United States.

Employers must verify the employment eligibility of any persons hired after November 6, 1986, using the Employment Eligibility Verification Form (I-9). The employer is required to examine, at the time of hire, the documentation provided by the individual that establishes his identity and employment eligibility, and to ensure that the documents presented appear to be genuine and relate to the individual. The employer must retain the Form I-9 for three (3) years after the date of the hire or one (1) year after the date the individual's employment is terminated, whichever is later. In general, it is unlawful for a person or other entity to hire, or recruit or refer for a fee, for employment in the United States an alien knowing the alien is an unauthorized alien with respect to such employment as indicated in the above described employment eligibility verification process. Further, Section 274A of the INA stipulates it is unlawful for a person or entity, after hiring an alien for employment, to continue to employ the alien in the United States knowing the alien is (or has become) an unauthorized alien with respect to such employment.

(2) The United States Department of Treasury, Internal Revenue Service (IRS) is an agency of the United States responsible for the administration and collection of employment related and income taxes for both businesses and individuals operating within the United States. The term "payroll taxes" includes federal withholding income taxes, Social Security taxes, Medicare taxes, and federal unemployment taxes.

(3) Throughout the United States, each state has its own State Workforce Agency (SWA) responsible for the administration and collection of employment related and / or income taxes for both businesses and / or individuals operating within that state.

The term “payroll taxes” includes state income taxes, unemployment taxes, and / or other applicable taxes.

Count One

Violation: 18 U.S.C. § 1962(d)
(RICO Conspiracy)

General Allegations

(4) At all times material to this indictment, defendants Lina Sun, a/k/a “Linda,” Chenglun Ma, a/k/a “Pablo,” Chang Jin Song, and Zhiqiang Li, and others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, were members and associates of an enterprise referred to as the Hong Li Enterprise, an organization engaged in, among other things, recruiting and placing unauthorized aliens to work in restaurants throughout the state of Texas, and elsewhere, for a fee. This organization also transported the unauthorized aliens to the restaurants where they would work and be housed by the restaurant owners / operators during their employ. At times, the organization also housed the unauthorized aliens pending their transport to the restaurants to work.

The Racketeering Enterprise

(5) Lina Sun, a/k/a “Linda,” Chenglun Ma, a/k/a, “Pablo,” Chang Jin Song, Zhiqiang Li, and others both known and unknown to the Grand Jury, were members and associates of the Hong Li Enterprise. The Hong Li Enterprise, including its leadership, members, and associates constituted an enterprise, as that term is defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1961(4), that is, a group of individuals associated in fact. The Hong Li Enterprise constituted an ongoing organization whose members functioned as a continuing unit for the common purpose of achieving the objectives of the Hong Li Enterprise, which was engaged in, and the activities of which, affected interstate commerce.

Purposes of the Hong Li Enterprise

- (6) The Hong Li Enterprise's purposes were to:
- a. Accept, solicit, and recruit unauthorized alien workers, and persons believed by the defendants to be unauthorized alien workers, for employment in the United States.
 - b. Arrange for, and cause the unlawful employment of, unauthorized alien workers primarily in Chinese and Chinese owned / operated restaurants in the United States for a fee.
 - c. Transport, and cause the transportation of, unauthorized alien workers within the United States for whom the defendants arranged employment in the United States.
 - d. Harbor, and cause to be harbored, for a fee, unauthorized alien workers in vehicles and domiciles within the United States.
 - e. Receive commercial advantage or private financial gain by employing, transporting, and harboring unauthorized alien workers, and by arranging for the employment, transportation and harboring of unauthorized alien workers in the United States.

Means and Methods of the Hong Li Enterprise

(7) Lina Sun, a/k/a “Linda,” operated the Texas Job Agency, an employment referral business beginning on or about April 21, 2004 and registered at 8807 Bellaire Blvd., Houston, Texas, which is no longer in existence. Lina Sun, a/k/a “Linda,” subsequently operated the Hong Li Job Agency, an unincorporated, locally licensed business, doing business as Hong Li since on or about February 13, 2008, located at 9107 Bellaire Blvd., #218, Houston, Texas, in the Southern District of Texas. It was through these job referral agencies that Lina Sun, a/k/a “Linda,” and others conducted the affairs of the Hong Li Enterprise, namely, the unlawful recruitment, inducement, harboring, and transportation of unauthorized aliens to work in the United States.

(8) Lina Sun, a/k/a “Linda,” personally and with others, recruited unauthorized aliens for work in the restaurant industry and then transported them to restaurants to work, all the while concealing, harboring, and encouraging and inducing them to reside in the United States. Clients of the Hong Li Enterprise were Chinese restaurants or other Chinese owned restaurants located in several states, to include Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri, and Maine.

(9) The workforce supplied by the Hong Li Enterprise was predominantly comprised of Hispanic unauthorized aliens from Mexico and Central America illegally in the United States. A workforce of this demographic was specifically sought and employed by the Hong Li Enterprise for commercial advantage and private financial gain.

(10) More specifically, the Hong Li Enterprise placed unauthorized alien kitchen workers, food preparers, and dishwashers in budget-priced restaurants specializing in Chinese, Asian, and Asian-related cuisine throughout the United States for a fee. The Hong Li Enterprise solicited “client” restaurants through commercial advertising in Chinese language newspapers that circulate nationwide in print and digital form.

(11) The Hong Li Enterprise used Chinese-language newspaper(s), including World Journal of Texas, and this newspaper’s companion Internet website to solicit the Chinese restaurants and offer Hispanic unauthorized alien workers, commonly referred to in this context as “amigos,” to them. Following this solicitation, and upon agreement with the restaurant owners, the Hong Li Enterprise charged fees for the transportation, housing, and delivery of unauthorized alien workers with the fees depending on the length of time an unauthorized alien worker was housed by the Hong Li Enterprise and how far the unauthorized alien was transported.

(12) The Hong Li Enterprise created and distributed business cards, printed in both Chinese and Spanish, to Chinese restaurant owners / operators and Spanish-speaking unauthorized aliens to facilitate this effort. Additionally, the Hong Li Enterprise also accepted unauthorized alien workers on a “walk-in” basis and utilized Spanish-speaking recruiters to assist with communications in person and / or over the phone. As part of this scheme, these unauthorized alien workers remained and resided in the United States in violation of the law.

(13) Owners or operators of “client” restaurants in the United States would and did knowingly and / or with reckless disregard routinely hire unauthorized alien workers in order to staff their restaurant kitchen operations, thereby cutting costs and maximizing profits. In general, these owners / operators of “client” restaurants:

- a. Required the unauthorized aliens to work long hours with few or no days off;
- b. Paid the unauthorized aliens in cash, at a rate below minimum wage;
- c. Did not withhold state and / or federal taxes from the wages paid to unauthorized aliens;
- d. Did not require the unauthorized aliens to comply with local health standards for restaurant workers in the jurisdictions where they operated;
- e. Did not require the unauthorized aliens to present documents establishing identity and /or employment eligibility as required by law; and,

(14) As an incentive, and in order to remain competitive, these “client” restaurant owners / operators often provided housing, meals, and transportation to their unauthorized alien worker(s).

(15) As stated above, the Hong Li Enterprise advertised and distributed business cards to unauthorized aliens, several of whom are now material witnesses, and others, and utilized the Internet in order to facilitate this effort. Specifically, the Hong Li Enterprise recruited unauthorized alien workers in the Houston, Texas area and charged them approximately $300 to $630 per person for what they represented as fees for housing while awaiting employment, fees for job placement, and fees for transportation to an employment location. The fee charged to the unauthorized alien was paid by the “client” restaurant owner and / or manager upon receiving an unauthorized alien from the Hong Li Enterprise. The exact amount of these fees would then be deducted from the unauthorized alien’s first month’s salary. The typical monthly salary for the unauthorized aliens employed by the “client” restaurants was between $1,000 and $2,000 per month, depending upon the type of duty the unauthorized alien was assigned to do. The typical monthly salary was based on a schedule of twelve (12) hours per day, six (6) days per week.

(16) “Client” restaurants of the Hong Li Enterprise further profited by not allowing unauthorized alien workers to receive “tips,” gratuities, overtime compensation, competitive salaries, health insurance, vacation time, sick leave, compensatory time, or other benefits. The “client” restaurants profited further by avoiding payment of employment taxes via cash payment of unauthorized workers’ salaries. Unauthorized alien workers did not receive health examinations, food safety training, or job training at any time while employed, resulting in further savings for “client” restaurants.

(17) “Client” restaurants of the Hong Li Enterprise profited by harboring unauthorized alien workers in one (1) of several formats beneficial to the “client” restaurant(s). Specifically:

- a. unauthorized alien workers were harbored in the “client” restaurant operator’s residence; or
- b. unauthorized aliens were harbored in off-site residential locations with multiple other restaurant employees.

(18) Often, the unauthorized alien workers were subject to unfavorable living conditions due to crowding, lack of privacy, minimal or no furniture, and other adverse conditions to include sleeping on floors, and / or air mattresses. The unauthorized aliens, having usually been transported many miles from the Houston, Texas area, had no friends or family in the vicinity of their place of employment. This aspect of the scheme, coupled with the poor English language skills typical to the work force recruited by the Hong Li Enterprise, made it difficult for the unauthorized alien employees to function outside their place of employment, for fear of law enforcement and lack of an ability to assimilate into the community. These factors caused the unauthorized aliens to be more likely to remain at the Chinese restaurant even though the working and living conditions were less than desirable.

(19) The Hong Li Enterprise failed to comply with Section 274A of the INA, because it is also unlawful for a person or other entity to hire, or to recruit, or refer for a fee, for employment in the United States, an individual without complying with the requirements of the employment verification system.

(20) The Hong Li Enterprise recruited, and referred for a fee, employed, transported, harbored, and encouraged and induced unauthorized aliens to work at “client” restaurants. The Defendants and their associates knew that the “client” restaurants, in turn:

- a. Employed the unauthorized alien in a manner contrary to immigration law;

- b. Did not provide for worker's compensation coverage for the unauthorized alien employees;
- c. Did not provide overtime benefits for the unauthorized alien employees in accordance with employment regulations, and;
- d. Did not withhold payroll taxes for unauthorized alien employees.

Roles of the Defendants

(21) The members of the Enterprise would and did occupy the following roles, among others, in the Enterprise:

As part of the Hong Li Enterprise, Chenglun Ma, a/k/a "Pablo," was responsible for recruiting, transporting, harboring, and encouraging and inducing unauthorized aliens to reside in the United States. Chenglun Ma, a/k/a "Pablo," is the spouse of Lina Sun, a/k/a "Linda," and acts as overall manager of the Hong Li Enterprise in Lina Sun's, a/k/a "Linda's" absence.

Chenglun Ma, a/k/a “Pablo,” accepts fees for the delivery of unauthorized aliens to restaurant locations.

c. Defendant Chang Jin Song has been identified as a principal driver / transporter for the Hong Li Enterprise. As part of the Hong Li Enterprise, Chang Jin Song harbored and transported unauthorized aliens and accepted fees for their delivery to restaurant locations.

It was part of the conspiracy that:

(63) Owners or operators of restaurants, usually Chinese restaurants, within the United States, would and did routinely hire unauthorized alien laborers in order to staff their operations and businesses, thereby cutting costs and maximizing profits. In general, these owners and operators of restaurants worked the unauthorized alien laborers long hours, paid the unauthorized aliens in cash, did not withhold state or federal taxes, and they did not require the unauthorized aliens to present documents establishing identity and employment eligibility as required by law. As an incentive, and in order to remain competitive, these restaurant owners / operators often provided housing, board, and transportation to their unauthorized alien laborers. These restaurant owners/operators would and did contact Hong Li order to obtain unauthorized alien labor for their restaurant operations.

(64) Defendants, Lina Sun, a/k/a “Linda,” Chenglun Ma, a/k/a “Pablo,” Chang Jin Song, Zhiqiang Li, and Chenzhong Yu, while operating and acting on behalf of Hong Li, accepted, solicited, and recruited unauthorized alien laborers in order to “broker” those unauthorized aliens to restaurant owners / operators in need of employees. Defendants Lina Sun, a/k/a “Linda,” Chenglun Ma, a/k/a “Pablo,” Chang Jin Song, Zhiqiang Li, and Chenzhong Yu, obtained unauthorized alien laborers through various means, including solicitation through advertisements in regional ethnic newspapers, direct referral from other unauthorized aliens, and recruitment by Lina Sun, a/k/a “Linda,” Chenglun Ma, a/k/a “Pablo,” Chang Jin Song, Zhiqiang Li, Chenzhong Yu, and others on behalf of Hong Li. Lina Sun, a/k/a “Linda,” Chenglun Ma, a/k/a “Pablo,” Chang Jin Song, Zhiqiang Li, Chenzhong Yu, also accepted unauthorized alien laborers on a “walk-in” basis. These unauthorized alien laborers, who were not authorized to obtain employment in the United States, remained and resided in the United States in violation of law.

(65) Defendant, Lina Sun, a/k/a “Linda” and Chenglun Ma, a/k/a “Pablo” housed some of the unauthorized alien laborers who were seeking employment through Hong Li, in their office and apartments rented by Lina Sun, a/k/a “Linda” and Chenglun Ma, a/k/a “Pablo” until those unauthorized aliens could be placed for employment.

(66) Lina Sun, a/k/a “Linda” and Chenglun Ma, a/k/a “Pablo” charged the unauthorized alien laborers a commission fee for the job placement. The commission fee was paid by the unauthorized alien laborers or by the prospective employer and later deducted from the unauthorized aliens' wages. In addition to the commission fee, Lina Sun, a/k/a "Linda," Chenglun Ma, a/k/a "Pablo," Chang Jin Song, Zhiqiang Li, Chenzhong Yu, and others known and unknown, would charge the unauthorized alien laborers a transportation fee for transportation to the prospective place of employment.

(67) Chenglun Ma, a/k/a "Pablo," Chang Jin Song, Zhiqiang Li, Chenzhong Yu, and others known and unknown, transported or arranged for the transportation of the unauthorized aliens at Lina Sun's, a/k/a "Linda's" direction by way of privately owned vehicles to restaurant job sites: (i) located within the Eastern District of Texas; (ii) to job locations elsewhere, via transportation of the unauthorized aliens through the Eastern District of Texas or, (iii) to job locations elsewhere in the United States both inside and outside the State of Texas.

(68) Wei Ji Zheng, Wen Juan Zhang, Chanjuan Xie, Xue Fang He, Jin Zhu Wang, Li Qui Jiang, Hua Zhu Dong, Zhen Yin Weng a/k/a "Danny," Dan Hui Lu, Zeng Yu Huang, and Jian Tuan Dong, and others known and unknown, operated or were affiliated with Chinese restaurants in the Eastern District of Texas and elsewhere.

(69) Wei Ji Zheng, Wen Juan Zhang, Chanjuan Xie, Xue Fang He, Jin Zhu Wang, Li Qui Jiang, Hua Zhu Dong, Zhen Yin Weng a/k/a "Danny," Dan Hui Lu, Zeng Yu Huang, and, Jian Tuan Dong conspired, confederated and combined with Lina Sun, a/k/a "Linda," Chenglun Ma, a/k/a "Pablo," Chang Jin Song, Zhiqiang Li, and Chenzhong Yu, and others known and unknown, employed by Hong Li to arrange for the transportation and delivery of unauthorized aliens to Chinese restaurants they operated or were affiliated with.

All in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1324 (a)(1)(A)(v)(I).
