

To: All SEVIS Users

Date: June 27, 2017

Re: Download the June 2017 Edition of the SEVP Spotlight

Number: 1706-05

General Information

The Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP) published its quarterly edition of the SEVP Spotlight on June 27, 2017.

In this latest edition of the SEVP Spotlight, Acting SEVP Deputy Assistant Director (DAD) Rachel Canty introduces herself to the academic community. Acting Director Canty, who has been with the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) since its inception, discusses her background and experience in SEVP, and expresses her gratitude to former SEVP DAD Louis Farrell for his dedication to the program.

This edition of the SEVP Spotlight also includes:

- A welcome message from the two newest SEVP field representatives.
- An update from DHS's Office of Academic Engagement.
- A summary of the latest enhancements on Study in the States.

For more information and program updates from SEVP, download the June 2017 edition of the SEVP Spotlight on Study in the States.

Comments

To comment on this Broadcast Message, please email SEVP@ice.dhs.gov with "Broadcast Message 1706-05 Comment" entered in the subject line.

Disclaimer

This Broadcast Message is not a substitute for applicable legal requirements, nor is it itself a rule or a final action by SEVP. It is not intended to, does not and may not be relied upon to create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law by any party in any administrative, civil or criminal matter.