Re: Download the July 2016 Edition of SEVP Spotlight

Number: 1607-02

General Information

Attached to this broadcast message is the July 2016 edition of the Student and Exchange Visitor Program's (SEVP) quarterly newsletter, SEVP Spotlight.

In this issue, SEVP Director Lou Farrell shares information about SEVP's recent participation in the NAFSA: Association of International Educators 2016 Annual Conference & Expo and the program's plans to address stakeholder feedback discussed at the event.

This edition also includes:

- An article from the SEVP Field Representative Unit that provides designated school officials at flight schools with tips and best practices for complying with SEVP regulations.
- A timeline of the latest enhancements to the Student and Exchange Visitor Information System.
- An update about the Homeland Security Academic Advisory Council's April 2016 meeting from the U.S. Department of Homeland Security's Office of Academic Engagement.
- An article explaining which classes of nonimmigrant visa holders besides F, M and J can study in the United States from the U. S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement's Counterterrorism and Criminal Exploitation Unit.
